education matters.  Regionally, First Nations will establish a Regional Education Council to coordinate support for education programs and services.  First Nations who have joined include: Pic Mobert, Biigtigoong Nishnabeg (Pic River), Biinjitiwaabik Zaaging Anishinaabek (Rocky Bay), Long Lake #58 and Red Rock Indian Band.  Provincially, the Kinoomaadziwin Education Body will act like a school board.

to schools where MHAN services are currently not available. This service is designed to support schools in all communities across the district. With this agreement any school administrator (Principal or Vice Principal) will be able to contact their designated MHAN to consult about a mental health/illness or substance use/abuse issue. This will assist CCAC in gathering the appropriate data required to help them build their case for additional resources for Boards and communities.

7. PRO Grant Speaker ±Chris Vollum
