	and explained the difference between a Family Support Worker (FSW) and a Counsellor. E. Montelpare explained that NOSP is hoping to have a Centralized Intake Clinician in place December of this year, who will streamline the intake process and make connections with families and children.
	P. Cormier asked how the NOSP services will overlap with services provided through the schools. E. Montelpare explained that the idea is to have a collaboration between all of the service providers. NOSP staff will check in with school counsellors and offer supports for children with complex needs.
